

Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

The city's corps of School Teachers numbers some forty-five, under the superintendence of the Rev. A. D. Williams, pastor of the Freewill Baptist Church. The High School, taught by Samuel J. Pike, ex. lat. tutor in Bowdon College, contains nearly 100 pupils, and is a model school. The same curriculum may be pronounced upon the Grammar School, which is all convened in one building, under the charge of Mr. George A. Walton, who has some dozen assistants associated with him. This school numbers about seventy students. The somewhat unique plan of collecting all the Grammar school pupils together in one building, and under one head, works most admirably, doing more service at less expense than the

INDIGNATION MEETING IN MICHIGAN

ANN ARBOR, Michigan, Monday, June 2, 1856.
The just resentment, indignation and abhorrence

At a meeting of the students of New-England Re-pleton Academy, held May 31, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

tion, have heard of the late brutal assault upon the person of the Hon. CHARLES SUMNER by PRESTON S. BROOKS, a Representative from South Carolina, and whereas we think it to be an in-

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be
Mr. Sumner and Mr. Brooks, and send to N. Y. Tribune the Journal (N. Y. Foreigner, Cabinet, and the Stanton News
Journal, with a request that they be published.
(Signed) S. A. HUNT, ) Committee LEWIS WALLACE, ) Resolutions.
HENRY H. HAMBALL, )

---

LIBERAL.—At the recent great Kansas meeting in Detroit, Mr. Duncan Stewart, a well-known merchant of that city, offered to give $2,000 per year, toward the maintenance of a company in Kansas to assist in making it a Free State.

KILLED BY TOBACCO.—Two children of Mr. Donough of Evanston, Ill., died from drinking coffee with which tobacco had become accidentally mixed.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

SENATOR WILSON AT WORCESTER.

The Hon. Henry Wilson was received at 8 o'clock

Cambridge, James H. Duncan of Haverhill, George R. Russell of West Roxbury, Ezra Lincoln of Boston, Nathaniel B. Bowen of Fall River, C. W. Bellows of Pepperell, John Dickinson of

The Boston Chronicle, of Thursday, says:
"The Convention at Worcester, yesterday, was a

ARRIVAL OF THE WASHINGTON.

rived at this port on Friday morning, from Bremen and Southampton, bringing European dates to the 21st ult.

the gun-boats ranged off the shore for the purpose of saluting her Majesty.

---

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN.—This large and influential Association was in session last week, and took action to pass a series of strong and imperative resolutions against Slavery, the Kansas outrages, and the assault upon Senator Sumner.

---

Brig. Gen. Wm. S. Fullerton, of Sparta, has been elected Major General of the Seventh Division, and Col. James Wood, jr., of Genesee, has been elected Broadway General to fill vacancy.

THE BACK OF ENVELOPE

FULL PARTICULARS.
The armed and determined resistance of the citizens of Lawrence to our laws, and the many offenses room at that place, forced the U. S. Marshal, on the 11th day of May, 1856, to issue the following

This call was answered from all sections of the Territory. On Tuesday, the 20th, a large force of Law-concentrate about two miles this side of Lawrence, so as to be ready for the execution of his immediate de-seed. In about one hour there gathered in the streets, in front of the hotel, some 150 men; some one was haranguing them. Off to the east of town eleven to leave town, but were cut off by our pickets. These were the only indications of a fight.

heart that choked all utterance of their willingness to follow him in the face of any danger. He selected a

Jones had a great many writs in his hands, but could find no one against whom he held them. He also had in front of bullfences. During the time appears were made to Sheriff Jones to save the Aid Society's hotel. The crowd was so large that the aid society was received with one universal cry of "No! No! blow it up! Blow it up! We will not injure private property," but our motto is, Destruction to everything belonging to the Aid Society. The Court has declared it a "nuisance and we will destroy it."

About this time a banner was seen fluttering in the breeze over the office of The Herald of Freedom. Its color was a blood red, with a lone star in the center and South Carolina above. This banner was placed there by the Carolinians—Messrs. Wright & a Mr. (Yoe). The effect was tremendous. One tremendous and long continued shout burst from the ranks. This purposes; but they are only a faction in the country and have produced this state of things. It remains to be seen whether that portion of the North and East shrieks." We think the conservative men of the North and East, have had furnished them long since beyond the bounds of society in the category of villains and outlaws; but this matters but little with the peo political demagogues and ultra fire eaters as the heavens are above the earth. These are the men we wish to see removed from the people of Kansas; this venge upon his supplanters, put up a pitiful mouth to an Abolition Congress for a seat as Delegate from Kansas. Every one knows what his memorial alleges:

almost unlimited powers. Then began the crusade in earnest; the first day of this session witnessed the mouth of the holes were concealed from view by a thin coat of lime, that could be easily knocked out when desired. The above statement can be establish-

State Hotel. They have in possession the twelve-pound howitzer taken from the enemy, and whenever

R. Brooks, in sundries.....	150
Capt. Bertram, in sundries.....	20
— Drafts.....	200
Promissory Notes.....	200
C. Stone, Seven Land Warrants.....	1,000
Cash, clothing, gold watch and horse.....	310
— sundries.....	10
— Drafts.....	20
C. W. Tappin, cash, clothing, &c.....	700
G. W. & W. Hutchinson & Co., dry goods, groceries, provisions.....	400
— sundries.....	250
I. S. Drinnie, sundries.....	5
John Rice, sundries.....	15
Lyman Allen, sundries.....	36
Hourly & Ferrill, dry goods, groceries, &c.....	70
Charles Hargreaves, sundries.....	10
Charles Hargreaves, groceries and provisions.....	70

was at the time of the destruction of his office in prison at Leecompton, and therefore unable to acquaint me with his plans for the future publication of USE that The Herald will be reestablished as soon as possible. I was one of the editors of the paper, and Lawrence and other points in the Territory. The paper will be dated Lawrence, and devoted as heretofore to the interests of the Territory.

In the meantime, all communications must be addressed to G. W. Brown & Co., Alton, Illinois.

persons there, not residents of the district; knew many of them to be residents of Missouri; there were armed; they came in wagons and on horseback, most of them camped, but some of them stayed in public farmers and other business men who he knew resided in Missouri; on the day of election he conversed with to vote, and had a right; the men there that day came from several counties: some from Jackson, but mostly them), is that no one has been able to give testimony that they saw him hand in a ballot. Indeed, the witnesses had seen few men actually voting, although I was sworn that they were ranged up in line and shook up to the poll in regular order. In fact these invaders and their Pro-Slavery friends about Nicholas had possession of the polls, and though it appears that the Free State men were told that all could vote peacefully, both by Oliver and others, still it is not wonderful that they did not keep near the polls at such a time. Mr. Oliver, in private, has, I understand, de-